DEBS UNATTENDED VISITS DAUGHERTY

He Comes From and Returns to Atlanta Prison Alone

CONFERS THREE HOURS

Unprecedented is Trip Made With Approval of President Harding—Unrecognized on Train

Washington, March 25.—Unaccompanied and unrecognized, Eugene Debs, the Socialist candidate for ident last fall, who is serving year sentence in the Atlanta tentiary for obstructing the draft ng the war, called at the Depart of Justice yesterday and con- d for more than two hours with rney General Daugherty.

ith the approval of President ling, Mr. Daugherty sent for and permitted him to come Washington and return to prison lutely alone. The Attorney ral questioned the prisoner as expressed views of opposition e war which led to his convic- as to whether he has changed attitude in any respect. as to his ysical condition and other matters rtaining to the queston of releas- the aged radical from further finement.

Mr. Daugherty declined to reveal at information he obtained from bs or to indicate any conclusions refrom, stating that he would vise the President whether, in his inion, clemency should or should t be granted.

Debs, furnished with a round trip ket to Washington, left the Atlan- penitentiary yesterday, boarded a in and mingled with the passen- rs absolutely unrecognized, so far is known. There was no one at e station to meet him when he ar- ved in Washington yesterday and hailed a taxicab and was driven the Department of Justice.

Unrecognized at the department. inquired his way to the office of Attorney General, sent in his rd and soon was closeted with Mr. augherty and Col. Guy D. Goff, sistant to the Attorney General. After the conference Debs left the partment, still unrecognized and rted back to Atlanta, where he is e to arrive tomorrow afternoon. e fact that Debs had been at the artment did not become public l Mr. Daugherty received the paper correspondents an hour r the prisoner had departed.

There is not much in the way of ws," began Mr. Daugherty, "ex- t that I wanted to tell you about bs coming to Washington today. have a prepared statement ready you."

Thereupon the Attorney General nded around this statement:

"In connection with the investiga- on of the Debs case and after con- rence with the President and with s approval I had Debs come here r the purpose of making some in- iries of him. He has returned to tlanta. I have asked him to refrain om saying anything for publication otherwise regarding the inquiries ade of him. I am sure no well aning person will urge him to dis ss this matter or anything that k place on his journey or during stay here. Debs presented his case to the trial court and jury was permitted to do so here.

"The Debs case, as I have said fore, stands alone. I could not, course, go to him. What took ace and the information I have ac- ired will be reported in due time ly to the President and that in nnection with any recommenda- ions that may be made when the nvestigation is concluded. Debs ame here without guard and so re- urns to Atlanta. Colonel Goff, as- istant to the Attorney General, was present during the inquiry."

Former President William H. Taft alled upon Attorney General Daugh- rty just before the newspaper men ere ushered in and remained dur- ng their conference. He appeared xtremely interested in the Debs ase and the questions asked about

One of the very first inquiries put Mr. Daugherty was where the uthority lay for allowing a Federal risoner to make the trip to Washington and return unguarded.

"I am satisfied there is full authority" said the Attorney General. "I have not looked it up, but I am satisfied it exists."

"What precedent is there for it?" he was asked.

"Well, there is a precedent now," he replied. "I discussed the matter with the President and I am willing to take the full responsibility for my action."

As to the health of the prisoner Mr. Daugherty said:

There has been much pressure lately to force a general amnesty for political prisoners, comprising those who violated the Espionage law and who obstructed Draft law through speeches and action. Mr. Daugherty was asked if the Debs case would be the basis of a general policy in this matter, but he said:

"No, this is an individual case; it stands alone."

"Did Debs display any change of mind?" asked a correspondent alluding to Debs' former attitude toward the Draft law.

"Naturally that was one of the things discussed, but just as naturally I cannot talk about it," was the reply.

"Life Saving Stamps" Will be Sold Here Tomorrow

China is today in the grip of the worst calamity in history. Owing to nearly one and one half years of continuous drought, crops have failed, and 15,000,000 Chinese are facing immediate starvation and will die without our help.

To assist in raising funds for the famine relief, Chinese "Life Saving Stamps" will be sold on Saturday morning in the First National Bank. Burke and Herbert's, Alexandria National Bank and Swan Bros., store.

Three cents (one stamp), will save a life one day.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The weather last night did not prevent the assembling of a comfortable congregation to hear Rev. S. W. Cole. The tide of spiritual power which has been steadily rising, reached the highest level which brought one young woman and three young men to the front. Mr. Cole spoke with unusual effectiveness upon the text: "As the rain cometh down etc." It is felt that there will be a great work of grace as a result, which will extend beyond the closing of the meeting. The meetings will certainly be extended to Sunday evening, and Sunday will mark a great climax. If weather conditions permit, there will be a great service tonight. It has been decided to have a service on Saturday night, it is felt that no time should be lost. It is hoped that a large part of the membership will come under the influence of this revival

Women To Train

Ladies' Auxiliary of Y. M. C. A., May Form Class in Physical Work

Physical training for young women is the latest slogan of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. And this is the result of a request on the part of the young ladies themselves. For some time the young ladies of the city have been desiring some physical training but only a few days ago the Ladies' Auxiliary of the "Y" took the matter up and now the class seems assured.

The class will have a maximum enrollment of forty and will meet once a week in some central place yet to be selected.

A number of young ladies have already enrolled and many are making inquiries regarding the course. The "Y" states that the course will be conducted without equipment but will be according to the most approved and modern methods of physical education.

The class will begin the evening of Thursday April 7, and will continue ten weeks. Further information regarding the course or plans of organization can be secured by calling the Y. M. C. A., telephone 1181.

GIBBONS' FUNERAL NEXT THURSDAY

To Be Buried In Crypt Under Altar of Cathedral

BELL TOLL TIDINGS

Final Stage of Cardinal's Illness Begun Sunday—Honored by Four Pontiffs

Baltimore, March 25.—The funeral of James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and a leading Roman Catholic prelate of the world, who died at the age of eighty-six yesterday at the archbishop's residence, will be held next Thursday morning at the Cathedral.

A pontifical high mass will be celebrated, probably by Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, or some other high dignitary of the church. The mass will begin at 10 o'clock. The body will be buried in a crypt under the altar of the Cathedral.

Masses will be said daily beginning Monday. On that day the Rev. Louis R. Stickney, rector of the Cathedral, will be celebrant and ten children from each parochial school, academy and college in the diocese will be present. On Tuesday the mass will be for the sisterhoods and brother hoods and will be celebrated by the Rev. Eugene Connolly, chancellor, of the archdiocese. On Wednesday poniti fical high mass will be celebrated by Bishop Corrigan for the laity of the church.

A message from Rome signed by Cardinal Gaspar, papal secretary of state, was received shortly before the death of Cardnal Gibbons. The message contained the blessing and benediction of Pope Benedict.

Cardnal Gibbons' death occurred at 11.33 o'clock.

Dr. Charles J. O'Donnovan, personal physician of the Cardinal, spent most of the morning at the bedside of the dying prelate.

When he left at 11.20 o'clock he notified the members of the household that the Cardinal, because of his weakened condition could live but a short time longer. The members of the household then joined the Bon Secour nun who had been nursing the Cardinal since he became ill last November at his bedside. They were the Rev. Lewis R. Stickney, rector, Rev. Albert E. Smith, secretary to the Cardinal; Rev. Connolly, chancellor of the archdiocese of Baltimore, the Rev. Edward Leonard and the Rev. William J. Hafey.

They were joined a few minutes later by the Cardinal's confessor, the Rev. John Boyer, of St. Mary's Seminary.

Fr. Stickney then read the prayers for the dying and administered again the last rites of the church. The nun said the Cardinal breathed his last at 11.33 o'clock, but she did not officially pronounce him dead until 11.37 o'clock.

Immediately after the death of the Cardinal. Fr. Connolly, as chancellor of the archdiocese officially notified Bishop Owen B. Corrigan, auxiliary bishop of Baltimore and pastor of St. Gregory's Church, of the death of the prelate. Bishop Corrigan at once sent a cablegram to Pope Benedict XV, in Rome, while Fr. Connelly sent telegrams to every archbishop and bishop in America.

When Mayor Broening was notified of the Cardinal's death he had the bell in the City Hall dome tolled for several minutes and all the flags on the municipal buildings placed at half mast.

Pope Benedict sent his blessing to the Cardinal in the following cablegram:

"The Holy Father, invoking heavenly blessings and comforts on His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons sends to him from the bottom of his heart the apostolic benediction."

The blessing was received a few minutes before the Cardinal died.

The final stage of the Cardinal's illness began on Sunday. After having recovered sufficiently from the failure of his health in November to be able to move about his home and even go out, the Cardinal became very much weaker on Sunday and was unable to leave his bed. His hearth action became alarmingly weak and his temperature fell on that day. Since that time his physician, Dr. Charles Donovan, has been in almost constant attendance. but it was felt that the Cardinal could not again manifest the remarkable recuperative powers which he showed several months ago. His death had been expected at any time since Sunday.

Cardinal Gibbons had, perhaps one of the most remarkable ecclesiastical careers since medieval royalty. He had been a priest for 59 years, a bishop for 52 years, archbishop for 43 years and for 34 years had been a member of the Sacred College of Cardinals.

He had been honored as one of the household of four pontiffs—Pius IX, Leo XIII, Pius X and the present Pope Benedict XV.

His death will be mourned in every corner of the earth, by millions of Catholics and by special orders, requiem prayers will be offered in every church under the dominion of Rome.

Many works of founding institutions, establisning parishes, writing religious books, attending consistories and convocations and traveling both in America and abroad consumed the years of his life until 1911 when on May 10 he celebrated his golden ubilee as a priest. There followed another celebration—that of his thirty-third anniversary as a cardinal and his fifty-eighth anniversary as a priest, on June 30, of last year. In September of 1919 he received many European notables, among them Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, and previously, a courier from the Pope, bearing belated messages of felicitation. Some time later he officiated at the bestowal upon Admiral Benson of the Order of St. Gregory, awarded for valor, by Pope Benedict.

He was born blind and had made a study of music and for many years was a member of the old Alexandria Musical Association.

Southern Makes Cut

Reduces Number of Train Dispatchers—May be Other Cuts

Lynchburg, Va., March 25.—Further reductions in its operating force was announced yesterday by the Southern Railway which cut off the train dispatchers at Charlotte and extended the territory of the Atlanta dispatchers as far north as Salisbury, N. C. The change cuts off three dispatchers who had been working eight hours each at Charlotte and doubles the work of the men dispatching from the Atlanta office.

Railroad men would not be surprised to see similar cuts made on the Washington and Danville Divisions. This probably would result in the closing of the dispatching office either at Monroe or Alexandria. The big reduction in section forces will be effective next Monday when forces will be cut in half.

Railroad officials here stated today that it would be impossible to do away with the dispatcher's office in Alexandria.

PHYSICAL TRAINING OFFERED HIGH SCHOOL

Proposition Submitted by Local Y. M. C. A.

SCHOOL BOARD TO ACT

If Offer is Accepted Secretary Wallace to Give Part of Four Days a Week to Work

The Y. M. C. A., has offered to put physical training in the Alexandria High School. The board of directors of the association are eager to serve the community in every possible way and the offer has just been made through Dr. S. B. Moore, president of the school board.

Secretary Wallace, of the Y. M. C. A. is a physical director of over twenty years experience, having taught in college, high schools and athletic clubs, besides the Y. M. C. A., and has offered to take personal charge of the work for the rest of the year. He is now arranging his schedule so that he can give a part of four days each week to the work, if the offer is accepted.

It is thought that the auditorium of the high school will be utilized as a gymnasium if the work is attempted. and the high school and Y. M. C. A. now have some equipment and more will be provided if necessary. Should the new course be put in it would be practically the same as that used in the leading high schools and colleges of the country.

Mr. Wallace stated that it would be impossible at present for him to give sufficient time to extend the course to the grades, but he expressed the hope that it would soon be possible to offer the course to the teachers of the grades so that they might carry on the work for the lower classes. No formal action has been taken by the school board regarding the offer of the "Y" but it is thought that a decision will be reached at once in order that the actual work may be started immediately after the Easter holidays.

Oratorio Tonight

Olivet to Calvary to be Sung Tonight By the Choir of the Methodist Episcopal Church South

As previously announced in the columns of this paper, the rendition of Maunder's impressive "Olivet to Calvary" will be sung in the Methodist Episcopal Church South by the regular choir of the church, assisted by several other voices with Mr. Edgar Priest, Organist and Choirmaster of the Washington Cathedral, presiding at the organ.

An offering will be taken during the intermission between the first and second parts of this beautiful and sacred musical production.

Besides the oratorio itself, the remaining part of the service will be marked by extreme simplicity, it having been arranged that a congregational hymn be sung, followed by prayer by the Rev. E. V. Regester, at the conclusion of which will be heard the entrancing strains of the prelude to the opening chorus.

As also stated before, the people of Alexandria will be most cordially welcomed but are requested to be in the church a few minutes before 8 o'clock.

The Passing of Gibbons.

The death of James Cardinal Gibbons Archbishop of Baltimore, removes from the publid life of America a figure only too rare and too hard to loose. Primarily as a churchman and leader of spiritual thought but hardly less effectively as a statesman and champion of sound political ideas, Cardinal Gibbons has for a half century wielded such influence over the masses of our people, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, as only a few Americans of that time have done. He has been guide, counsellor and friend to America. She will miss him sorely.

Cardinal Gibbons was born in Baltimore July 28, 1834, spent the large part of his youth in Ireland and returning with his widowed mother to this country when he was fourteen years old got a job in New Orleans as a clerk and delivery boy in a grocery store. Not long before he died, the Cardinal said, "I look back on those early days of hard work with pride, because I am a firm believer in the school of hard and honest labor." Certainly his life exemplified that as his creed. From the time he was ordained when he was 27 years old until he breathed his last in his eighty seventh year, he applied himself steadfastly and indefatigably to the problems of church, state, charity, benevolence and friendship. He was the companion and confidante of three Popes. Kings and potentates of foreign powers sought his advice and help. So did many American Presidents and political leaders. Societies throughout the world honored him with decorations and degrees. He was a man whose window looked out on the world and whose vision encompassed much.

And now he has gone to his rest, leaving a great void in many hearts and the compelling memory of a big, noble life to inspire others to carry on the work.

An Ohio contemporary is already bragging to the effect that if the country has a change of heart and elects James M. Cox President in 1924, Ohio will have passed Virginia and become the Mother of Presidents. To which the retort might be made that so far Virginia has furnished eight Presidents and Ohio seven and Virginia has not furnished a bad one and Ohio has not furnished a good one. You lose out, Ohio, on both quantity and quality.

Permit to Make Wine Given Strawberry Men

Washington, March 25.—A permit to manufacture wine out of strawberries for non-beverage purposes was issued last night to the Strawberry Growers' Association of Louisiana by the Bureau of Internal Revenu. Provision is made in the permit that no sugar shall be added to increase the alcoholic content of the product.

While no explanation of the issuance of the permit was made by the bureau, officials said that the strawberry growers had appealed to prohibition authorities for permission to set up a winery in order to care for their surplus crop, which was estimated to be worth about $5,000,000. Under the Volstead act it was explained, it is legal to establish wineries for the manufacture of non-beverage products for sacramental or medicinal purposes.

Such procedure, officials intimated would not be confined to strawberry blueberries and the different shades of of other juicy berries—blackberries, blueerries and the different shades of raspberries—and might in the case of necessity, cover vegetables, such as beets, and possibly dandelions and elderberries.

Hectic Life With Song Writer Mate Too Much for Wife

Chicago, March 24.—Life with a song writer for a husband isn't all one sweet and dulcet strain, Mrs. Margery Harrell told a judge yesterday.

Her husband, Jack, who composes a song a day, she said, would indite a tender ballad to her and then throw a vase at her. On another occasion, she testified, after completing a particularly honeyed song, he poured a bucket of water in her bed and took her clothes away from her.

"THE COUNTY FAIR" ONE OF THE SEASON'S REEL HITS

Maurice Tourneur's picturization of "The County Fair" will be presented today and tomorrow at the Idle Hour Theatre

The story is founded upon the famous play of the same name in which Neil Burgess starred for many seasons all over the world. It is the typical study of New Eng'and rural life with a loveable spinster for its central character attaining its humors, excitement and character studies at a county fair and reaching its climax in a thrilling horse race where Cold Molasses runs for the fortunes and happiness of the story's protagonists. There are infinite sidelights and bucolic studies which lend it that simple appeal which is always so interesting in dramas native to the soil of New England.

Where the play was naturally limited upon the stage the picture version gains sweep and scope and intimacy of detail which is impossible to show under any form of entertainment than that of the silver screen. It was these possibilities which Maurice Tourneur enlarged upon so successfully and this accounts for the present great vogue of the familiar story. It has been breaking records everywhere and is the outstanding screen hit of the season.

In addition to its natural appeals the story is presented with a cast noteworthy by the fact that at least three of the principals have been elevated to stardom in motion pictures since their work in this instance. These favorites are the famous freckle faced kid of filmland, Wesley Barry; dainty Helen Jerome Eddy, noted for her work in girl parts and David Butler who has forged to the front as a rugged young leading man. Other principals are Edith Chapman, William V. Mong, John Steppling, Charles Barton and Arthur Housman.

The fourth charge is against Captain Mueller for criminal neglect in a prison camp.

YOU NEVER CAN TAME A WILD CAT

Mr. Dodson Warns Against Use of Treacherous, Dangerous Calomel

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless pleasant and safe to give to children: they like it.

ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE DOES IT.

When your shoes pinch or your corns and bunions ache so that you are tired all over, get Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes and sprinkled in the foot bath. It will take the sting out of corns and bunions and give instant relief to Smarting, Aching, Swollen, Tender feet. 1,500,000 pounds of powder for the feet were used by our Army and Navy during the war. Sold everywhere.
